Missions Mailbox

Paul Gazan works with Operation Mobilization (OM), an organization that is taking a new approach to missionary work. Instead of the traditional method of believers leaving their jobs and going abroad to work in ministry, relying on those back home for financial support, OM equips believers to take their professions and live among the least-reached. Through this approach, the Gospel is shared and lived out in more places than ever before. Paul, with his extensive experience in preparing missionary workers, is helping coach these marketplace workers. Let's pray for Paul and Lisa, and also their daughter Rachel, who is preparing for a Gap Year missions trip to Romania, India and Costa Rica.
